An Act to establish the Public Procurement And Disposal of Public Assets Authority to formulate policies and regulate practices in respect of public procurement and disposal activities and other connected matters.

BE IT ENACTED by Parliament as follows:

Part I – Preliminary

1. Short title and commencement

- (1) This Act may be cited as the Public Procurement And Disposal of Public Assets Act, 2003.
- (2) This Act shall commence on a day appointed by the Minister by statutory instrument.

2. Application of the Act

- (1) This Act shall apply to all public procurement and disposal activities and in particular shall apply to —
 - (a) all public finances—
 - (i) originating from the Consolidated Fund and related special finances expended through the capital or recurrent budgets, whatever form these may take;
 - (ii) that may be earmarked for external obligation purposes, except those resources that may be earmarked for payments of membership subscriptions and contributions; and
 - (iii) of a procuring and disposing entity;
 - (b) resources in the form of counterpart transfers or co-financing or any finances of a similar nature within the context of development co-operation agreements for the implementation of national programmes; and
 - (c) procurement and disposal by a procuring and disposing entity, within or outside Uganda;

paragraph (c) substituted by section 2(a) of [Act 11 of 2011]

- (d) procurement financed from specific public finances specified in paragraph (a), in the case of an entity not being of Government, except where the Authority confirms in writing, that the procurement system of the entity is satisfactory;

paragraph (d) added by section 2(b) of [Act 11 of 2011]

- (e) procurement and disposal by a company registered under the Companies Act, in which a procuring and disposing entity has majority interest.

paragraph (e) added by section 2(b) of [Act 11 of 2011]

- (1a) For the avoidance of doubt, the following activities by a procuring and disposing entity are not procurement to which this Act applies—

- (a) the acquisition of an asset or of equipment, where the asset or equipment is being disposed of by another procuring and disposing entity in accordance with section 87;
- (b) the acquisition of a service provided by another procuring and disposing entity, except a service normally offered by that procuring and disposing entity for a fee; and
- (c) the recruitment of the services of an individual as an employee of a procuring and disposing entity in accordance with the administrative policies of the procuring and disposing entity.

subsection (1a) inserted by section 2(c) of [Act 11 of 2011]

- (1b) Subject to subsection (1c), this Act shall not apply to the Auditor General in the selection of private audit firms to undertake any assignment under the mandate of the Auditor General.

subsection (1b) inserted by section 2(c) of [Act 11 of 2011]

- (1c) The Auditor General shall in exercise of his or her mandate in subsection (1b) apply the principles of transparency and competition in order to ensure value for money.

subsection (1c) inserted by section 2(c) of [Act 11 of 2011]

- in accordance with the terms and conditions specified in regulations made under this Act.

section 39 substituted by section 20 of [Act 11 of 2011]

40. Third party procurement and disposal

- (1) Where it is deemed that there is lack of technical capacity, and subject to guidelines and prior approval of the Authority, a procuring and disposing entity may engage third party procurement and disposal services.
- (2) On deciding to invite third party procurement services, a procuring and disposing entity shall—
 - (a) secure prior written assurance of the Accounting Officer that funds are available to pay in full and on time for those services;
 - (b) obtain those services from among firms prequalified by the Authority; and
 - (c) follow the procedure laid down by the Authority in its guidelines.

40A. Accreditation for alternative systems

- (1) A procuring and disposing entity which is not able to comply with a particular procurement or disposal procedure required under this Act, may apply to the Authority for accreditation of an alternative system.
- (2) The Authority shall permit accreditation of an alternative system—
 - (a) where exceptional requirements make it impossible, impractical or uneconomical to comply with this Act;
 - (b) where market conditions or behaviour do not allow effective application of this Act; and
 - (c) for specialised or particular requirements that are regulated or governed by harmonised international standards or practices.
- (3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), the Authority may, on its own initiative, accredit an alternative system for a procuring and disposing entity which is not able to comply with a procurement or disposal procedure required under this Act.
- (4) The Authority shall accredit an alternative system where a procuring and disposing entity—
 - (a) operates in a specialised field or discipline which requires alternative or additional regulations;
 - (b) has a status that requires alternative or additional regulations;
 - (c) is required to use an alternative system to comply with the provisions of international or any other agreements; or
 - (d) has other valid reasons which necessitate the use of an alternative system.
- (5) An application for accreditation shall be made using the procedure provided in regulations made under this Act.
- (6) There shall be an alternative system for the procurement of medicines and other medical supplies.
- (7) The Minister shall in consultation with the Minister responsible for health and the Authority, make regulations for the procurement of medicines and other medical supplies.

- (8) Without prejudice to the general effect of subsection (7), the regulations made under this section shall—
- (a) provide for the special nature of procurement of medicines and medical supplies;
 - (b) provide for the specific attributes of medical supplies;
 - (c) define the medical supplies which are subject to this section;
 - (d) take into consideration developments, if any, in the procurement, storage and distribution of medicines and medical supplies.

Part IV – Basic public procurement and disposal principles

43. Application of basic principles of public procurement and disposal

All public procurement and disposal shall be conducted in accordance with the following principles—

- (a) non-discrimination;
- (b) transparency, accountability and fairness;
- (c) maximization of competition and ensuring value for money;
- (d) confidentiality;
- (e) economy and efficiency; and
- (f) promotion of ethics.

section 43 substituted by section 24 of [Act 11 of 2011]

44. Non-discrimination

A bidder shall not be excluded from participating in public procurement and disposal on the basis of nationality, race, religion, gender or any other criterion not related to qualification, except to the extent provided for in this Act.

45. Transparency, accountability and fairness

All procurement and disposal shall be conducted in a manner which promotes transparency, accountability and fairness.

46. Competition

Subject to this Act, all procurement and disposal shall be conducted in a manner to maximize competition and achieve value for money.

47. Confidentiality

- (1) A procuring and disposing entity shall, upon written request by any person, disclose information regarding any procurement or disposal process.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1)—
 - (a) a procuring and disposing entity shall not disclose to a bidder or to any other person who is not involved in the preparation of the solicitation documents, the evaluation process or the award decision, any information relating to—
 - (i) solicitation documents, before the solicitation documents are officially issued;

- (ii) the examination, clarification, evaluation and comparison of bids before the best evaluated bidder notice is displayed on the procurement and disposal notice board of the procuring and disposing entity; and
- (b) information shall not be disclosed where—
 - (i) the disclosure is likely to prejudice the security or sovereignty of the State;
 - (ii) the disclosure interferes with the right to the privacy of any person;
 - (iii) the disclosure would amount to a breach of the law, impede law enforcement or would not be in public interest; or
 - (iv) the information contains—
 - (A) proprietary information including information relating to any manufacturing process, trade secret, trademark, copyright, patent or formula protected by law or by international treaty to which Uganda is a party;
 - (B) scientific or technical information, the disclosure of which is likely to cause harm to the interests of the proper functioning of any procuring and disposal entity; or
 - (C) information supplied in confidence by a bidder, the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to put that bidder at a disadvantage in contractual commercial negotiations or to prejudice the bidder in commercial competition.

section 47 substituted by section 25 of [Act 11 of 2011]

48. Economy and efficiency

All procurement and disposal shall be conducted in a manner which promotes economy, efficiency and value for money.

49. Ethics

All procurement and disposal shall be carried out in accordance with the Codes of Ethics that may be specified from time to time by the Authority.

50. Preference and reservation

- (1) Subject to the economic and social policies of Government and the international obligations of Government, preference shall be given to domestically manufactured goods and Ugandan contractors and Ugandan consultants, in order to promote their development, by giving them a competitive advantage when competing for public procurement contracts, with foreign manufactured goods, foreign contractors or foreign consultants.
- (2) To promote particular sectors within specified geographic areas, specified public procurement contracts or parts of a contract shall be subject to reservation schemes.

section 50 substituted by section 26 of [Act 11 of 2011]

51. Open competitive bidding

A procuring and disposing entity shall use open bidding as the preferred method of procurement and disposal.

52. Best evaluated bids

A contract shall be awarded to the bidder with the best evaluated offer ascertained on the basis of the methodology and criteria detailed in the bidding documents.

53. Public accessibility

Copies of the Act, regulations, Guidelines, and forms made under this Act, standard bidding documents and decisions of the Authority shall be made accessible to the public by the Authority.

Part V – Public procurement and disposal rules55. Application of public procurement and disposal rules

All public procurement and disposal shall be carried out in accordance with the rules set out in this Part of the Act, any regulations and guidelines made under this Act.

56. Records

- (1) subsection (1) repealed by section 28 of [Act 11 of 2011]
- (2) A procuring and disposing entity shall use the standard forms issued by the Authority to record all details of the procurement or disposal process, except where it obtains the consent of the Authority to use forms other than those provided by the Authority.
- (3) Where a document or form does not exist for a given circumstance, a procuring and disposing entity may apply to the Authority for permission to use an alternative document or form until the time the Authority issues the standard document or form.
- (4) The application mentioned in sub-section (3), shall state the circumstances giving rise to the need for the Authority to produce a particular standard form or document.

57. Communication

- (1) All communication between a procuring and disposing entity, bidder, or provider, shall be in writing and communication in any other form shall be referred to and confirmed in writing.
- (2) English shall be the language of communication unless otherwise specified by the Authority.
- (3) Forms of communication shall be specified in the solicitation documents.

58. Procurement and disposal planning

- (1) In accordance with the budget preparation procedures issued by the Minister, a procuring and disposing entity shall in each financial year, by a date determined by the Secretary to the Treasury, prepare and submit to the Secretary to the Treasury and to the Authority, its annual procurement plan for the following financial year.
- (2) A procuring and disposing entity shall plan its procurement and disposal in a rational manner and in particular shall—
 - (a) aggregate its requirements where possible, both within the procuring and disposal entity and between procuring and disposal entities, to obtain value for money and to reduce procurement costs;
 - (b) make use of framework contracts wherever appropriate to provide an efficient, cost effective and flexible means to procure works, services or supplies that are required continuously or repeatedly over a set period of time;

- (c) not split a procurement or a disposal to defeat the use of the appropriate procurement or disposal method;
 - (d) integrate its procurement budget with its expenditure programme; and
 - (e) integrate the disposal of assets, both listed and unlisted, in its assets register as well as in its income and expenditure budget.
- (3) The Authority shall issue guidelines in respect of the format of the procurement plan to be prepared under this section.
- (4) A procuring and disposing entity shall, on a quarterly basis and in any other case, wherever necessary, review and update its procurement plan.
- (5) A procuring and disposing entity shall notify the Secretary to the Treasury and the Authority of any changes made to its procurement plan and submit the updated and approved plan to the Authority.
- (6) A procuring and disposing entity shall display its procurement plan and the updated and approved plan on its procurement and disposal notice board or using any other method as may be prescribed, for not less than twenty working days.
- (7) Procurement shall not be carried out outside the procurement plan except in cases of emergency situations.

section 58 substituted by section 29 of [Act 11 of 2011]

59. Initiation of procurement or disposal requirements and confirmation of funding

- (1) All procurement or disposal requirements shall be documented prior to the commencement of any procurement or disposal proceedings.
- (2) Procurement or disposal shall only be initiated or continued on the confirmation that funding, in the full amount over the required period, is available or will be made available at the time the contract commitment is made.
- (3) All procurement or disposal requirements shall be approved by the Accounting Officer prior to the commencement of any procurement or disposal process.

59A. Preference schemes

- (1) Preference schemes shall be applied—
 - (a) in respect of goods, works and non-consultancy services, where the open domestic or open international bidding methods are used, with a specified margin of preference being added during the financial comparison stage of the evaluation process to the evaluated price of the bid which does not qualify for preference; and
 - (b) in respect of consultancy services, for the quality and cost based selection method and the least cost selection method, where proposals are invited from both national and foreign consultants, with a specified margin of preference being added to the evaluated price of the foreign proposal, during the financial comparison stage of the evaluation process.
- (2) The margin of preference specified in subsection (1) shall—
 - (a) be based on only the price and shall be added to the evaluated price of a bid which does not qualify for preference or to the evaluated price of a bid of a foreign proposal;
 - (b) in respect of goods that qualify as domestically manufactured goods, be related to the percentage of the labour, raw material and components of the goods that originate from Uganda; and

- (c) in respect of works and services—
 - (i) be proportional to the percentage of the share capital of the contractor or consultant, where the consultant is a firm owned by Government or by Ugandans; or
 - (ii) be based on only the price and shall be added to the evaluated price of a bid which does not qualify for preference or to the evaluated price of a bid of a foreign proposal, if the consultant is a Ugandan citizen.
- (3) A procuring and disposing entity shall when procuring goods, works or services under this section, grant a margin of preference—
 - (a) of fifteen percent, in respect of goods; and
 - (b) of seven percent, in respect of works or services.
- (4) Goods qualify for preference, as domestically manufactured goods, under subsection (2) (b) where—
 - (a) where the labour or value addition to the good is more than thirty percent of the ex-works of the goods; and
 - (b) the production facility in which the goods are to be manufactured, assembled or processed is in Uganda and is engaged in the manufacturing, assembling or processing of the goods at the time of submission of the bid.
- (5) A contractor and a consultant qualify for preference as a Ugandan contractor or a Ugandan consultant under subsection (2) (c) where—
 - (a) the contractor or consultant is incorporated or registered in Uganda;
 - (b) the contractor or consultant if an individual, is a Ugandan citizen;
 - (c) the contractor or consultant if a company registered in Uganda, more than fifty percent of the capital of the contractor or consultant is owned by Ugandan citizens; and
 - (d) the contractor or consultant if a legal entity, more than fifty percent of the capital of the contractor or consultant is owned by the Government or by a procuring and disposing entity.
- (6) A contractor or consultant who qualifies as such under section (5) (d) shall be—
 - (a) legally and financially autonomous;
 - (b) established as a commercial venture; and
 - (c) authorised by a competent authority or a professional body to operate as a contractor or to perform services as a consultant.
- (7) A procuring and disposing entity shall, when procuring works or services under a joint venture or under an association between a Ugandan contractor and a foreign partner or between a Ugandan consultant and a foreign partner, grant a margin of preference of four percent for the works or services.
- (8) A joint venture or an association between a Ugandan contractor and a foreign partner or between a Ugandan consultant and a foreign partner shall be eligible for preference where—
 - (a) the joint venture is registered in Uganda;
 - (b) the Ugandan contractor or Ugandan consultant in the joint venture qualifies for preference under subsection (5); or
 - (c) the Ugandan contractor or Ugandan consultant demonstrates a beneficiary interest of more than fifty percent in the joint venture as demonstrated by the profit and loss sharing provisions of the joint venture agreement.

59B. Reservation schemes

- (1) In accordance with section 50 (2), the Authority shall, in consultation with a competent authority, and the relevant stakeholders, specify the public procurement contracts to be subject to a reservation scheme and shall designate the particular sectors, within a specified geographical area, that are eligible to participate in the reservation scheme.
- (2) A public procurement contract shall be subject to a reservation scheme in order to—
 - (a) promote the use of local expertise and materials;
 - (b) promote the participation of local communities or local organisations; or
 - (c) apply specific technologies.
- (3) A procuring and disposing entity that intends to make a procurement under a reservation scheme shall—
 - (a) apply to the Authority for permission to use alternative procurement procedures and documents and shall in the application indicate the contract packages, specifications and contracting processes to be included in the bidding documents; and
 - (b) deal with only the providers that are eligible to participate in a reservation scheme, in accordance with this section.
- (4) The procurement procedures and documents and the contract packages, specifications and contracting processes to be used under subsection (3) shall be in accordance with the basic procurement principles prescribed under Part IV of this Act.

section 59B inserted by section 31 of [Act 11 of 2011]

60. Statements of requirements

- (1) A statement of requirements may be in the form of—
 - (a) specifications;
 - (b) terms of reference;
 - (c) scope of works;
 - (d) drawings;
 - (e) bills of quantities; or
 - (f) an equivalent of any of the items specified in this subsection, as may be appropriate.
- (2) A statement of requirements shall give a correct and complete description of the object of the procurement or disposal activity for the purpose of creating fair and open competition.

section 60 substituted by section 32 of [Act 11 of 2011]

61. Best practice and industry standards

Procuring and disposing entities shall at all times use industry standards defined and codified by internationally recognised trade associations and professional bodies in the appropriate fields.

62. Solicitation documents

- (1) A procuring and disposing entity shall use the standard documents provided by the Authority as models for drafting all solicitation documents for each individual procurement or disposal requirement.

- (2) All solicitation documents shall—
 - (a) detail the terms and conditions, which shall apply to any resulting contract; and
 - (b) contain the General Conditions of Contract, or a statement of the General Conditions of Contract which shall apply.
- (3) The General Conditions of Contract shall not be modified except through Special Conditions inserted into the solicitation documents or contract.
- (4) A procuring and disposing entity shall obtain the prior consent of the Authority to place a contract against the General Conditions of Contract other than those contained in the standard solicitation documents provided by the Authority.

63. Selection of bidders

All methods for the selection of bidders to be invited to bid shall allow for fair and equitable selection and ensure maximum competition.

64. Bidding period

The bidding period shall be sufficient to allow bidders to prepare and submit their bids and shall not be reduced with the aim of limiting competition.

65. Clarification of solicitation documentation

- (1) At any time prior to the deadline for bid submission, a procuring and disposing entity may, on its own initiative, or in response to a request for clarification by a bidder, modify the solicitation documents by issuing an addendum.
- (2) Where a procuring and disposing entity considers it necessary, it may extend the closing date to enable bidders to take the addendum fully into account while preparing their bids.

66. Form of bids

A procuring and disposing entity shall require bidders to submit sealed written bids unless otherwise provided for in this Act or regulations made under this Act.

67. Bid submission methods

The method for bid submission shall be prescribed by regulations made under this Act and shall be determined in the regulations by the type, complexity and evaluation method of the procurement or disposal being handled by the procuring and disposing entity.

68. Modification and withdrawal of bids

A bidder may modify or withdraw his or her bid at any time before the deadline for bid submission, using the method prescribed by regulations made under this Act.

section 68 substituted by section 33 of [Act 11 of 2011]

69. Bid receipt and openings

All bidding processes shall include a formal bid receipt and a bid opening.

70. Basic qualification of bidders

A procuring and disposing entity shall require all bidders participating in public procurement or disposal to meet the qualification criteria set out in the bidding documents which in all cases shall include the following basic qualifications—

- (a) that the bidder has the legal capacity to enter into the contract;
- (b) that the bidder is not—
 - (i) insolvent; or
 - (ii) in receivership; or
 - (ii) bankrupt; or
 - (iv) being wound up;

[Please note: numbering as in original]

- (c) that the bidder's business activities have not been suspended;
- (d) that the bidder is not the subject of legal proceedings for any of the circumstances mentioned in paragraph (b); and
- (e) that the bidder has fulfilled his or her obligations to pay taxes and social security contributions.

71. Evaluation

- (1) The choice of an evaluation methodology shall be determined by the type, value and complexity of the procurement or disposal.
- (2) All solicitation documents shall fully and comprehensively detail the evaluation methodology and criteria which shall apply.
- (3) No evaluation criteria other than that stated in the bidding documents shall be taken into account.
- (4) A procuring and disposing entity shall ensure that the evaluation of bids is done expeditiously in accordance with regulations made under this Act.

subsection (4) added by section 34 of [Act 11 of 2011]

72. Change in bid details

There shall not be any alterations or any changes in the substance of bids, including changes in price, after the date and time of bid closing, except as may be otherwise prescribed by regulations made under this Act.

73. Clarification of bids received

A procuring and disposing entity may ask bidders for clarification of their bids in order to assist in an evaluation and to clarify details that were not apparent or could not be finalised at the time of bidding, in accordance with procedures prescribed by regulations made under this Act.

74. Prohibition of negotiations

- (1) Negotiations shall not be carried out between a procuring and disposing entity and a contractor, in respect of the proposal of the contractor, except where—
 - (a) the competitive procurement method was used and only one bid was received in response to the call for bids;

- (b) the direct procurement method was used; or
 - (c) the procurement is for consultancy services.
- (2) Negotiations under subsection (1) shall only be carried out where the best evaluated bid or proposal exceeds the budget of the procuring and disposing entity.
- (3) For the purposes of the negotiations under this section, the procuring and disposing entity shall investigate why the cost of the procurement exceeds the budget of the procuring and disposing entity and may—
 - (a) cancel the procurement process and request for new proposals; or
 - (b) negotiate with the best evaluated bidder in order to obtain a reduction of the scope or the quantities of the procurement.

section 74 substituted by section 35 of [Act 11 of 2011]

75. Rejection of bids

A procuring and disposing entity may reject any or all the bids at any time prior to the award of a contract.

76. Contracts

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, an award decision is not a contract.
- (2) An award shall not be confirmed by a procuring and disposing entity until—
 - (a) the period specified by regulations made under this Act has lapsed; and
 - (b) funding has been committed in the full amount over the required period.
- (3) An award shall be confirmed by a written contract signed by both the provider and the procuring and disposing entity only after the conditions set out in subsection (2) have been fully satisfied.
- (4) The award decision shall be posted in a manner prescribed by regulations during the period specified in paragraph (a) of sub-section (2).

77. Change in bidders circumstances

Any change in the circumstances of a bidder during the procurement or disposal process that could materially affect the bidder's capacity to execute the contract shall be immediately drawn to the attention of the Contracts Committee by the bidder.

78. Prohibition of Public Officers

Public Officers shall not participate in the disposal process as bidders except where specific items are offered to the Public Officials of a procuring and disposing entity subject to—

- (a) internal advertisement and competition;
- (b) the sale price being no less than the authorized valuation of the items to be offered;
- (c) the concurrence of the Head of the Procurement Unit, the Contracts Committees and the Accounting Officer; and
- (d) the complete record of each offer being kept by the procuring and disposing entity for inspection and record, a copy of which documentation shall be forwarded by the Accounting Officer to the Authority within seven working days.

Part VI – Methods of procurement and disposal

79. Choice of procurement method

heading substituted by section 36(a) of [Act 11 of 2011]

- (1) A procuring and disposal entity shall in respect of—
 - (a) the procurement of goods, works and non consulting services, use any of the methods specified in sections 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85 and 86 and the conditions for their use specified in the Fourth Schedule to this Act; and
 - (b) the procurement of consulting services, use section 88A and the conditions for procuring consultancy services specified in the Fourth Schedule to this Act.

subsection (1) substituted by section 36(b) of [Act 11 of 2011]

- (2) The choice of a procurement or disposal method shall first be approved by the Contracts Committee.
- (3) A procuring and disposing entity shall first obtain the consent of the Authority before it uses any other method than the ones set out in this Part of the Act.

80. Open domestic bidding

- (1) Except as provided for in this Act or regulations made under this Act, a procuring and disposing entity shall use the open domestic bidding method.
- (2) Open domestic bidding is a procurement method which is open to participation on equal terms by all providers through advertisement of the procurement opportunity.
- (3) Open domestic bidding shall be used to obtain maximum possible competition and value for money.
- (4) Nothing shall prevent a foreign or international bidder from participating in open domestic bidding.

section 80 amended by section 37 of [Act 11 of 2011]

81. Open international bidding

- (1) Open international bidding is the procurement method which is open to participation on equal terms by all providers, through advertisement of the procurement opportunity and which specifically seeks to attract foreign providers.
- (2) Open international bidding is used to obtain the maximum possible competition and value for money, where national providers may not necessarily make this achievable.

section 81 amended by section 37 of [Act 11 of 2011]

82. Restricted domestic bidding

- (1) Restricted domestic bidding is the procurement method where bids are obtained by direct invitation without open advertisement.
- (2) Restricted domestic bidding is used to obtain competition and value for money to the extent possible, where the value or circumstances do not justify or permit the open bidding procedure.

section 82 amended by section 37 of [Act 11 of 2011]

83. Restricted international bidding

- (1) Restricted international bidding is the procurement procedure where bids are obtained by direct invitation without open advertisement and the invited bidders include foreign providers.
- (2) Restricted international bidding shall be used to obtain competition and value for money to the extent possible where the value or circumstances do not justify or permit an open bidding method and the short listed bidders include foreign providers.

section 83 amended by section 37 of [Act 11 of 2011]

84. Quotation method

heading substituted by section 38(a) of [Act 11 of 2011]

- (1) The quotation method is a simplified procurement method which compares price quotations obtained from a number of providers.

subsection (1) substituted by section 38(b) of [Act 11 of 2011]

- (2) The Quotation method shall be used to obtain competition and value for money to the extent possible, where the value or circumstances do not justify or permit open or restricted bidding procedures.

subsection (2) amended by section 38(c) of [Act 11 of 2011]

- (3) The quotation method shall be used in works and supplies.

subsection (3) substituted by section 38(d) of [Act 11 of 2011]

85. Direct procurement

heading amended by section 39 of [Act 11 of 2011]

- (1) Direct procurement is a sole source procurement method for procurement requirements where exceptional circumstances prevent the use of competition.
- (2) Direct procurement shall be used to achieve efficient and timely procurement, where the circumstances do not permit a competitive method.

section 85 amended by section 39 of [Act 11 of 2011]

86. Micro-procurement

heading amended by section 40(a) of [Act 11 of 2011]

- (1) Micro procurement is a procurement method which shall be used for very low value procurement requirements.

subsection (1) substituted by section 40(b) of [Act 11 of 2011]

- (2) Micro procurement shall be used to achieve efficient and timely procurement where the value does not justify a competitive procedure.

subsection (2) amended by section 40(c) of [Act 11 of 2011]

87. Methods of disposal of public assets

heading substituted by section 41(a) of [Act 11 of 2011]

- (1) Public assets may be disposed of using any of the following methods—
 - (a) public auction;

- (b) public bidding;
- (c) direct negotiations;
- (d) sale to public officers;
- (e) destruction of the assets;
- (f) conversion or classification of assets into another form for disposal by sale;
- (g) trade-in;
- (h) transfer to another procuring and disposing entity; and
- (i) donation.

subsection (1) substituted by section 41(b) of [Act 11 of 2011]

- (1a) Where a public asset is to be donated the procuring and disposing entity shall take into account the following factors—

- (a) national security and public interest issues;
- (b) health and safety issues;
- (c) legal and human rights issues;
- (d) environmental considerations; and
- (e) the asset is obsolete and of minimal value.

subsection (1a) inserted by section 41(c) of [Act 11 of 2011]

- (1b) Donation shall only be used where the other methods of disposal cannot be used by the procuring and disposing entity.

subsection (1b) inserted by section 41(c) of [Act 11 of 2011]

- (1c) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a procuring and disposing entity shall not dispose of any strategic asset, without the prior approval of the Minister.

subsection (1c) inserted by section 41(c) of [Act 11 of 2011]

- (1d) Subsection (1c) shall not apply to the disposal of land by the Uganda Land Commission or by a district land board.

subsection (1d) inserted by section 41(c) of [Act 11 of 2011]

- (1e) For the avoidance of doubt, subsection (1c) applies to the disposal of land held by the Uganda Land Commission on behalf of a procuring and disposing entity.

subsection (1e) inserted by section 41(c) of [Act 11 of 2011]

- (1f) In this section “strategic asset” means land, a building, a ship, shares and any other asset as may be prescribed, belonging to the Government, situated within or outside Uganda.

subsection (1f) inserted by section 41(c) of [Act 11 of 2011]

- (2) The procedures for the methods in subsection (1) shall be prescribed by regulations made under this Act.

88. Selection of providers

The detailed procedures for selection of providers shall be prescribed by regulations.

88A. Procurement of consultancy services

- (1) A procuring and disposing entity shall procure a consultancy service by publishing a notice, as specified in the Fourth Schedule to this Act, inviting expression of interest for a required assignment.
- (2) The procuring and disposing entity shall, from the expressions received in respect of the notice under subsection (1), prepare a shortlist of consultants, who have the capacity to perform the required assignment.
- (3) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a procuring and disposing entity may procure consultancy services using a short list of consultants developed—
 - (a) from the register of providers of the Authority;
 - (b) on the recommendation of a competent authority;
 - (c) using the pre-qualified list of the procuring and disposing entity; or
 - (d) using the pre-qualified list of another procuring and disposing entity.
- (4) A procuring and disposing entity shall procure consultancy services using subsection (3) where—
 - (a) the required consultancy services can only be provided by a limited number of consultants;
 - (b) the time and cost required to examine and evaluate a large number of expressions of interest is not proportionate to the value of the assignment to be undertaken; or
 - (c) there is an emergency situation.
- (5) The selection methods to be used for the selection of consultants shall be prescribed by regulations made under this Act shall include—
 - (a) quality and cost based selection method;
 - (b) quality based selection method;
 - (c) fixed budget selection method;
 - (d) least cost based selection method; and
 - (e) the consultants' qualifications and selection method.
- (6) The procuring and disposing entity may conduct negotiations with the selected consultants but negotiations shall not be held with several consultants simultaneously.
- (7) Notwithstanding this section, where exceptional circumstances prevent the use of competitive bidding and where any of the conditions for using the direct procurement method as specified in the Fourth Schedule to this Act are satisfied, a procuring and disposing entity may source a consultant who has the capacity to perform the required assignment.

Part VIA – Types of contract

Part VIA inserted by section 43 of [Act 11 of 2011]

88B. Choice of contract

A procuring and disposing entity shall in respect of a procurement activity, use any of the contract types specified in this Part or a combination of any of them, using procedures prescribed by regulations made under this Act.

section 88B inserted by section 43 of [Act 11 of 2011]

88C. Lump sum contract

A lump sum contract shall be used where the content, duration and outputs of the procurement are well defined.

section 88C inserted by section 43 of [Act 11 of 2011]

88D. Time-based contract

A time-based contract shall be used where the scope and duration of the procurement requirement is difficult to define.

section 88D inserted by section 43 of [Act 11 of 2011]

88E. Admeasurement contract

An admeasurement contract, including a re-measurement, unit rate and bill of quantities contract may be used for works—

- (a) which are not well defined;
- (b) which are likely to change in quantity or specifications; or
- (c) where difficult or unforeseen site conditions, such as hidden foundation problems, are likely.

section 88E inserted by section 43 of [Act 11 of 2011]

88F. Framework contract

A framework contract, is a schedule of rates or an indefinite delivery contract and shall be used—

- (a) where a requirement is needed “on call” but where the quantity and timing of the requirement cannot be defined in advance; or
- (b) to reduce procurement costs or lead times for a requirement which is needed repeatedly or continuously over a period of time by having them available on a “call off” basis.

section 88F inserted by section 43 of [Act 11 of 2011]

88G. Percentage based contract

A percentage based contract shall be used where it is appropriate to relate the fee paid directly to the estimated or actual cost of the subject of the contract.

section 88G inserted by section 43 of [Act 11 of 2011]

88H. Cost reimbursable contract

A cost reimbursable contract shall be used—

- (a) for emergency work where there is insufficient time to calculate fully the costs involved;
- (b) for high risk works, where it is more economical for the procuring and disposing entity to bear the risk of price variations than to pay a provider to accept the risk or where the provider does not accept the risk.

section 88H inserted by section 43 of [Act 11 of 2011]

88I. Target price contract

A target price contract may be used instead of a cost reimbursable contract where a target price can be agreed and cost savings may be achieved by offering an incentive payment to the provider for any cost savings below the target price.

section 88I inserted by section 43 of [Act 11 of 2011]

88J. Retainer contract

A retainer contract shall be used to retain a provider to provide services over a prescribed period of time, without defining the level and actual amounts of services required.

section 88J inserted by section 43 of [Act 11 of 2011]

88K. Success fee contract

Success fee contract shall be used to link the fees of a provider to an achieved objective to provide an incentive to the successful completion of a particular task, event or action.

section 88K inserted by section 43 of [Act 11 of 2011]

88L. Other types of contracts and contracting arrangements

- (1) For any other type of contract or contracting arrangement, other than those specified in sections 88C to 88K, including acquisition by rental, lease, hire purchase, licence, tenancy and franchise, a procuring and disposing entity shall seek guidance from the Authority on the applicable procurement procedures and documents.

- (2) On receiving the complaint and the prescribed fee, the accounting officer shall—

- (a) immediately suspend the procurement proceedings; and
- (b) make a decision in writing, within fifteen working days, indicating the corrective measures to be taken, if any, and giving reasons for his or her decisions and submit a copy of the decision to the Authority.

subsection (2) substituted by section 45(c) of [Act 11 of 2011]

- (3) Where—

- (a) the Accounting Officer does not make a decision within the period specified in sub-section (2); or
- (b) the bidder is not satisfied with the decision of the Accounting Officer

the bidder may make a complaint to the Authority within ten working days from the date of communication of the decision by the Accounting Officer.

- (4) Upon receipt of a copy of the decision of the accounting officer specified in subsection (2) (b), the Authority shall within fifteen working days, review the decision and make a recommendation in writing to the procuring and disposing entity, indicating the corrective measures to be taken, if any, and giving reasons for the recommendation.

subsection (4) added by section 45(d) of [Act 11 of 2011]

- (5) Where the Authority fails to make a recommendation within the time prescribed under subsection (4), the accounting officer may implement the corrective measures indicated in the decision made under subsection (2) (b).

subsection (5) added by section 45(d) of [Act 11 of 2011]

- (6) The bidder who makes a complaint under this section has a right to proceed under Part VIIA of this Act, where the Authority fails to make a recommendation as required under subsection (4).

subsection (6) added by section 45(d) of [Act 11 of 2011]

- (7) Subject to Part VIIA of this Act, a contract shall not be entered into by an accounting officer with a provider—

- (a) during the period of administrative review;
- (b) before the Authority makes a final decision in respect of a complaint lodged with the Authority under subsection (3) or before a decision is made in accordance with Part VIIA of this Act.

subsection (7) added by section 45(d) of [Act 11 of 2011]

91. Review by the Authority

- (1) Upon receipt of a complaint, the Authority shall promptly give notice of the complaint to the respective procuring and disposing entity, suspending any further action thereon by the procuring and disposing entity until the Authority has settled the matter.
- (2) The Authority shall, unless it dismisses the complaint—
 - (a) prohibit a procuring and disposing entity from taking any further action; or
 - (b) annul in whole or in part an unlawful act or decision made by the procuring and disposing entity.
- (3) Before taking any decision on a complaint, the Authority shall notify all interested bidders of the complaint and may take into account representations from the bidders and from the respective procuring and disposing entity.
- (4) The Authority shall issue its decision within twenty-one working days after receiving the complaint, stating the reasons for its decision and remedies granted, if any.
- (5) A bidder who is not satisfied with the decision of the Authority given under subsection (4), may appeal against the decision, in accordance with Part VIIA of this Act.

- (2) Bidding documents may be issued to prospective bidders at a fee, the cost of which shall be agreed upon by the respective Contracts Committees.
- (3) A public bid opening shall be held in accordance with procedures prescribed by regulations.

2. Open international bidding

- (1) Open international bidding may be used instead of open domestic bidding where competition will not be effective without foreign bidders or where foreign bids will increase value for money.
- (2) Nothing shall prevent a domestic bidder from participating in open international bidding.
- (3) The procurement process under open international bidding shall follow the procurement process to be set out in regulations.
- (4) Open international bidding shall be open to all bidders following the public advertisement of a Bid Notice in a publication of wide international circulation.
- (5) Bidding documents may be issued to prospective bidders at a fee, the cost of which shall be agreed upon by the Contracts Committee but, in all cases shall be in line with guidelines.
- (6) A public bid opening shall be held in accordance with the procedure prescribed by regulations.

3. Restricted domestic bidding

- (1) Restricted domestic bidding may be used where—
 - (a) the supplies, works or services are available only from a limited number of providers; or
 - (b) there is insufficient time for an open bidding procedure in an emergency situation; or
 - (c) the estimated value of the procurement does not exceed the threshold stated in the procurement guidelines issued under this Act.

- (2) The procurement process under restricted domestic bidding shall follow the procurement procedures prescribed by regulations and as follows—
 - (a) the invitation to bid shall be addressed to a limited number of potential bidders without advertising the opportunity in a Bid Notice.
 - (b) the selection of bidders shall be in accordance with the procedure prescribed by regulations, and
 - (c) a public bid opening shall be held in accordance with the procedure prescribed by regulations.

4. Restricted international bidding

- (1) Restricted international bidding may be used where the supplies, works or services are available only from a limited number of providers and—
 - (a) there is insufficient time for an open bidding procedure in an emergency situation; or
 - (b) the estimated value of the procurement does not exceed the threshold stated in the procurement guidelines.
- (2) The procurement process under restricted international bidding shall follow the procedure prescribed by regulations and made under this Act as follows—
 - (a) the invitation to bid shall be addressed to a limited number of potential bidders without advertising the opportunity in a Bid Notice;
 - (b) the selection of bidders shall be in accordance with the procedure prescribed by regulations; and
 - (c) a public bid opening shall be held in accordance with the procedure to be prescribed by regulations.

5. Quotations and proposal

- (1) Quotations or proposal procurement or disposal may be used where—
 - (a) there is insufficient time for an open or restricted bidding procedure such as in an emergency situation; or
 - (b) where the estimated value of the procurement does not exceed the threshold stated in the procurement guidelines.
- (2) The process under quotations procurement shall be as follows—
 - (a) the solicitation document shall be addressed to a limited number of potential bidders without advertising the opportunity;
 - (b) the selection of the bidders shall be in accordance with regulations made under this Act;
 - (c) a procuring and disposing entity shall obtain at least three bids; and
 - (d) an internal bid opening shall be held in accordance with procedures to be prescribed by regulations.

6. Direct procurement

(1) Direct procurement may be used—

(a) where—

- (i) there is insufficient time for any other procedure such as in an emergency situation; or
 - (ii) the works, services or supplies are available from only one provider; or
 - (iii) an existing contract could be extended for additional works, services or supplies of a similar nature and no advantage could be obtained by further competition, if the prices on the extended contract are reasonable; or
 - (iv) additional works, services or supplies are required to be compatible with existing supplies, works or services and it is advantageous or necessary to purchase the additional works, services or supplies from the original supplier, provided the prices on the additional contract are reasonable; or
 - (v) it is essential or preferable to purchase additional works, services or supplies from the original supplier to ensure continuity for downstream work, including continuity in technical approach, use of experience acquired or continued professional liability, if the prices on the additional contract are reasonable;
- (b) in the circumstances specified in subparagraph (1)(a)(iii), (iv) and (v), where the value of the new works, services or supplies does not exceed fifteen percent of the value of the original or existing contract and the original or existing contract is awarded through a competitive process.

paragraph (b) substituted by section 55(a) of [Act 11 of 2011]

- (c) Where direct procurement is used more than once in the circumstances specified in subparagraph (1) (b), the cumulative value of all new works, services or supplies shall not exceed twenty five percent of the value of the original or existing contract.

paragraph (c) added by section 55(b) of [Act 11 of 2011]
